[1921, ch. 114, p. 238. House bill No. 170.]

An Act Declaring every child to be the legitimate child of its natural parents; making such child an heir of such parents and providing the procedure for establishing such parentage.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:

SECTION 1. Every child is hereby declared to be the legitimate child of its natural parents and as such is entitled to support and education to the same extent as if it had been born in lawful wedlock. It shall inherit from its natural parents and from their kindred heir lineal and collateral in the same manner as children born in lawful wedlock as provided in Paragraph 1092, Chapter 14, Title 6, of the Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1913, Civil Code.

This section shall apply to cases where the natural father of any such child is married to one other than the mother of said child, as well as where he is single. Provided, however, this law shall not be so construed as to give to said child the right to dwelling or a residence with the family of its father, if such father be married.

SECTION 2. The mother of any child born out of lawful wedlock may within one year after the birth of such child bring a civil action in the superior court to establish the parentage of such child. Such action shall be commenced by complaint filed by the mother as plaintiff against the alleged natural father as defendant, and summons shall be issued and served and the same proceedings had as in other civil cases. In such cases the parentage may be proved like any other fact.

Provided, that the mother of said child shall not be considered a competent witness in any case where the alleged natural father of said child shall be dead at the time of the trial.

Provided further, that a statement in writing may be made by the parents of said child, admitting the parentage thereof, and upon which a judgment may be entered.

SECTION 3. This action shall be deemed cumulative as to the remedies contained in Paragraphs 369 to 381, inclusive, Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1913, Penal Code, relating to bastardy proceedings, but all children hereafter born in this state shall be deemed to be legitimate.

SECTION 4. All acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

Approved March 17th, 1921.

ARIZONA.

[1921, ch. 123, p. 275. House bill No. 171.]

An Act To amend section 372 and 373, Title 10, Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1913, Penal Code, relating to bastardy proceedings.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Arizona:

SECTION 1. Paragraph 372, Title 10, Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1913, Penal Code, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

372. If the defendant does not comply with the provisions of the preceding section, and there is probable cause to believe him guilty as charged in the complaint, the justice shall require him to enter into a recognizance, with surities approved by the justice, in a sum not less than five hundred ($500.00) dollars nor more than one thousand ($1000.00) dollars, to appear before the superior court of the proper county and answer said complaint and abide the order of such court thereon. If he fails to give such recognizance, the justice shall commit him to the county jail, there to be held to answer such complaint. Thereupon the justice shall certify the examination, and return the same, and all process and papers in the case to the clerk of such court.

SECTION 2. Paragraph 373, Title 10, Revised Statutes of Arizona, 1913, Penal Code, is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

373. Upon trial, the issue shall be whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty. If he is found guilty, or admits the truth of the accusation, he shall be adjudged to be the father of such child and shall be charged with its maintenance until such child attains its majority. The court in its judgment shall direct the amount which shall be paid by the father for the support of such child and the manner in which such payment shall be made, and shall also direct the payment of the costs of prosecution by said defendant. The court may from time to time after the entry of said judgment, on petition of either of the parties, or upon its own motion, amend, revise, and alter such portions of the judgment as relate to the payment of money for the maintenance of said child, as may be deemed just and as the welfare of said child may require. The examination taken before the justice shall in all cases be read to the jury when demanded by the defendant.

SECTION 3. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

BASTARDY.

[House bill No. 745. Approved June 28, 1919.]

An Act To amend sections 1, 3, 4, 8, 11, 16 and 18 of an Act entitled: "An Act concerning bastardy," approved April 3, 1872, in force July 1, 1872, as amended.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly: Sections 1, 3, 4, 8, 11, 16 and 18 of an Act entitled, "An Act concerning bastardy," approved April 3, 1872, in force July 1, 1872, as amended, are amended to read as follows:

SECTION 1. When a woman who shall be pregnant, or delivered of a child, which, by law, would be deemed a bastard, shall make complaint to a justice of the peace or judge of a court having jurisdiction herein, in the county where she may be so pregnant or delivered, or the person accused may be found, and shall accuse under oath or affirmation, a person with being the father of such child, it shall be the duty of such justice or judge to issue a warrant against the person so accused and cause him to be brought forthwith before him, or in his absence, any other justice of the peace or judge in such county.

SECTION 3. Upon his appearance, it shall be the duty of said justice or judge to examine the woman, upon oath or affirmation, in the presence of the man alleged to be the father of the child, touching the charge against him. The defendant shall have the right to controvert such charge, and evidence may be heard, as in cases of trials before the county court. If the justice or judge shall be of the opinion that sufficient cause appears, it shall be his duty to bind the person so accused, in bond, with sufficient security, to appear at the next term of the court having jurisdiction here'n, in such county, to answer such charge, to which court said warrant and bond shall be returned. On neglect or refusal to give bond and security, the justice or judge shall cause such person to be committed to the jail of the county, there to be held to answer the complaint.

SECTION 4. The court having jurisdiction of cases coming within the terms of an Act entitled, "An Act relating to children who are or may hereafter become dependent, neglected or delinquent, to define these terms and to provide for the treatment, control, maintenance, adoption and guardianship of the persons of such children", approved April 21, 1899, in force July 1, 1899, as amended, shall, with other courts of competent jurisdiction, have jurisdiction in the trial of all cases arising under the terms of this Act. The said court, at its next term, shall cause an issue to be made up, whether the person charged, as aforesaid, is the real father of the child or not, which issue shall be tried by a jury. When the person charged appears and denies the charge, he shall have a right to controvert, by all legal evidence, the truth of said charge.

SECTION 8. In case the issue is found against the defendant or reputed father, or whenever he shall, in open court, have confessed the truth of the charge against him, he shall be condemned by the order and judgment of the court to pay a sum of money not exceeding two hundred dollars for the first year after the birth of such child, and a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars yearly, for nine years succeeding said first year, for the support, maintenance and education of such child, and shall, moreover, be adjudged to pay all the costs of the prosecution, for which costs execution shall issue as in other cases. And the said reputed father shall be required by said court to give bond with sufficient secu-urity, to be approved by the judge of said court, for the payment of such sum of money as shall be ordered by said court, as aforesaid; which said bond shall be made payable to the people of the State of Illinois, and conditioned for the due and faithful payment of said yearly sum, in equal quarterly installments, to the clerk of said court, which bond shall be filed and preserved by the clerk of said court.

SECTION 11. Whenever default shall be made in the payment of an installment, or any part thereof, mentioned in the bond provided for in the foregoing section, the judge of the court wherein such bond is filed shall, at the request of the mother or guardian or any other person interested in the support of such child, issue a citation to the principal and sureties in said bond, requiring them to appear on some day, in said citation mentioned, during the next term of said court and show cause, if any they have, why execution should not issue against them for the amount of the installment or installments due and unpaid on said bond, which said citation shall be served by any sheriff or constable of the county in which such principal or sureties reside or may be found, at least five days before the term day thereof. And if the amount due on such installment or installments shall not be paid at or before the time mentioned for showing cause, as aforesaid, the said judge shall render judgment in favor of the people of the State of Illinois, against the principal and sureties who have been served with said citation, for the amount unpaid on the installment or installments due on said bond, and the costs of said proceeding; and execution shall issue from said court against the goods and chattels of the person or persons against whom said judgments shall be rendered, for the amount of said judgment and costs, to the sheriff of any county in the State where the parties to said judgment, or either of them, reside or have property subject to such execution.

SECTION 16. No prosecution under this Act shall be brought after two years from the birth of such child: Provided, that where the reputed father has acknowledged in open court the paternity of the child, then, and in such case, prosecution may be brought at any time within two years from the last time such acknowledgment of paternity by the reputed father was made: Provided, further, that the time any person accused shall be absent from the State shall not be computed.

SECTION 18. The mother of a bastard child, before or after its birth, may release the reputed father of such child from all legal liability on account of such bastardy, upon such terms as may be consented to in writing by the judge of the court having jurisdiction herein of the county in which such mother resides: Provided, a release obtained from such mother in consideration of a payment to her of a sum of money less than eight hundred dollars in the absence of the written consent of the judge of the court having jurisdiction herein, shall not be a bar to a suit for bastardy against such father, but if, after such release is obtained, suit be instituted against such father and the issue be found against him, he shall be entitled to a set-off for the amount so paid, and it shall be accredited to him as of the first payment or payments: And, provided, further, that such father may compromise all his legal liability on account of such bastard child, with the mother thereof, without the written consent of such judge, by paying to her any sum not less than eight hundred dollars.

Approved June 28, 1919.

[1921, ch. 489.]

An Act To amend sections 3214, 3216, 3217, 3218, 3219, 3220, 3221, 3222, chapter 17, General Statutes 1913, as amended by chapter 219, Laws 1917, and to amend subdivision marked "3225(a)" of section 1, chapter 210, Laws 1917, relating to illegitimate children.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Minnesota:

SECTION 1. Laws amended.—That sections 3214, 3216, 3217, 3218, 3219, 3220, 3221, 3222, chapter 17, General Statutes 1913 as amended by chapter 210, Laws 1917, and subdivisions marked 3225 (a) of section 1 of chapter 210, Laws 1917, be and the same are hereby amended to read as follows:

3214. Complaint—Where filed—Warrant.—On complaint being made to a justice of the peace or municipal court by any woman who is delivered of an illegitimate child, or pregnant with a child which, if born alive, might be illegitimate, accusing any person of being the father of such child, the justice or clerk of the court shall take the complaint in writing, under her oath, and thereupon shall issue a warrant, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county commanding him forthwith to bring such accused person before such justice or court to answer such complaint; which warrant may be executed anywhere within the State. Such complaint shall be filed and further proceedings had either in the county where the woman resides or in the county where the alleged father of the child resides or in the county where the child is found, if it is likely to become a public charge upon such county.

3216. Defendant to give bond—May plead guilty.—If there is probable cause to believe the defendant guilty as charged in the complaint, the justice or judge shall require him to enter into a recognizance, with approved securities, in the sum of not less than three hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars, to appear before the district court of the proper county at the next term thereof, or if such court is then sitting in the county, at a date fixed by the justice or judge, and answer said complaint and abide the order of such court thereon. If he fails to give such recognizance, the justice or judge shall commit him to the county jail, there to be held to answer such complaint at the next term of such court, or at the date so fixed; provided, however, that said accused may appear before the court at any time and enter a plea of guilty to such complaint. Thereupon the justice or judge shall certify the examination, and return the same and all process and papers in the case of the clerk of such court.

3217. Continuance.—At the next term of said court, or at the date fixed by the justice or judge, if the complainant has not been delivered or is not able to attend, or for any other sufficient reason, the court may continue the cause, and such continuance shall renew the recognizance, which shall remain in force until final judgment. If the sureties shall at any term of court surrender the defendant and ask to be discharged, or if the court shall at any time deem it proper, it may order a new recognizance to be taken, and commit the defendant until it is given.

3218. Trial—Judgment—Default—Duties of board of control.—Upon the trial the examination taken before the justice or judge of the municipal court shall in all cases be read to the jury when demanded by the defendant. If he is found guilty, or admits the truth of the accusation, he shall be adjudged to be the father of such child and thenceforth shall be subject to all the obligations for the care, maintenance and education of such child, and to all the penalties for failure to perform the same, which are or shall be imposed by law upon the father of a legitimate child of like age and capacity. Judgment shall also be entered against him for all expenses incurred by the county for the lying-in and support of and attendance upon the mother during her sickness, and for the care and support of such child prior to said judgment of paternity, the amount of which expenses, if any, shall also be found by the judge, together with the costs of prosecution. If the defendant fails to pay the amount of such money judgment forthwith, or during such stay of execution as may be granted by the court, he shall be committed to the county jail, there to remain until he pays the same or is discharged according to law; provided, however, that no stay shall be granted unless the defendant shall give a bond to the county, in such sum and with such sureties as shall be approved by the court, for the payment of such money judgment on or before the expiration of such stay. Upon due notice to the State board of control or the duly appointed guardian of the child, the judge of the district court before whom the proceedings are pending shall make and enter an order, directing and requiring the father of such child to pay to the State board of control or the county child welfare board, if there be one, or the duly appointed guardian of such child such sum of money or its equivalent, as may be proper and adequate for the care, maintenance, and education of such child. Or such order may provide for the payment, in the manner heretofore provided, of a specific sum each month, or at other stated intervals, for the purpose hereinbefore specified, and may further require the father of such child to furnish such bond or other security for the performance of said order as may be proper and necessary. The court shall further fix the amount, and order the defendant to pay all expenses necessarily incurred by, or in behalf of, the mother of such child, in connection with her confinement and the care and maintenance of the child prior to judgment. If the defendant fails to comply with any order of the court, hereinbefore provided for, he may be summarily dealt with as for contempt of court, and shall likewise be subject to all the penalties for failure to care for and support such child, which are or shall be imposed by law upon the father of a legitimate child of like age and capacity, and in case of such failure to abide any order of the court, the defendant shall be fully liable for the support of such child without reference to such order.

3219. Father to pay all expenses.—In the event of judgment of paternity as provided in section 3218 the mother shall be entitled to recover of the father in a civil action all expense necessarily incurred by her in connection with her confinement, including her suitable maintenance for not more than eight weeks next prior thereto and not more than eight weeks thereafter; and for the burial of the child if the same shall have been still born, or shall have died after birth, and all necessary expenses and doctor's bills in connection with her or said child's sickness. The provisions of this section shall apply only to such expense or portion thereof as is not otherwise provided for by order of the court.

3220. Application for discharge from imprisonment.—Any person who has been imprisoned ninety days for failure to pay any such money judgment for expenses incurred by the county as hereinbefore set forth, may apply to said court, by petition setting forth his inability to pay the same, and praying to be discharged from imprisonment, and shall attach to such petition a verified statement of all his property, money and effects whether exempt from execution or otherwise. Thereupon the court shall appoint a time and place for hearing said application, of which the petitioner shall give at least ten days' notice to the county attorney.

3221. Hearing—Judgment.—At the hearing the defendant shall be examined on oath in reference to the facts set forth in such petition and his ability to pay such money judgment, and any other legal evidence in reference to such matters may be produced by any of the parties interested. If it appears that the defendant is unable to pay such judgment the court may direct his discharge from custody, upon his making affidavit that he has not in his own name any property, real or personal, and has such property conveyed or concealed, or in any manner disposed of with design to secure the same to his own use or to avoid in any manner payment of such judgment. The court, as a condition of such discharge may require the defendant to pay such judgment in monthly or other installments, as the earning capacity of the defendant may justify. If upon such hearing it appears that the defendant has property; but not sufficient to pay such judgment, the court may make such order concerning the same in connection with such discharge as justice may require. The defendant's discharge as aforesaid shall not affect the right of the county to collect upon execution any portion of such judgment remaining at any time unsatisfied, subject to all the provisions of law relating to judgments for the payment of money; or the right of the court to recommit the defendant if at any time it shall appear to the court that the defendant is possessed of means to pay said judgment but will not do so.

3222. Who may make complaint.—If a woman is delivered of an illegitimate child, or is pregnant with a child likely to be illegitimate when born, the county board of the county where she resides, or any member thereof, or the State board of control, or any person duly appointed to perform in said county any of the duties of said board relating to the welfare of children, may apply by complaint to a justice of the peace of the county or to a municipal court to inquire into the facts and circumstances of the case. Such complaint shall be filed and further proceedings had, either in the county where such mother resides, or in the county of the residence of the alleged father of such child, or in the county where such child may be found, if it is likely to become a public charge therein.

3225. (a) State board of control or guardian may make settlement.—The State board of control or the duly appointed guardian of the person of an illegitimate child shall have authority to accept from the acknowledged father of the child such sum as shall be approved by the court having jurisdiction of proceedings to establish the paternity of the child, in full settlement of all obligations for the care, maintenance and education of such child; and shall hold or dispose of the same as ordered by said court. Such settlement shall discharge the father of all further liability, civil and criminal, on account of such child: provided that such settlement shall not affect any liability of the father under section 3219; and provided that this section shall not apply to any case where a judgment of paternity has been entered pursuant to the provisions of this statute.

SECTION 1. Sections seventeen hundred and forty-five, seventeen hundred and forty-nine and seventeen hundred and fifty-one of the code of civil procedure are hereby amended to read, respectively, as follows:

SEC. 1749. Legitimacy of children.—The following provisions govern the effect of declaring a marriage void or annulling a voidable marriage upon the legitimacy of children of the marriage.

1. If a marriage be annulled on the ground that one or both of the parties had not attained the age of legal consent, a child of the marriage is deemed the legitimate child of both parents.

2. If a marriage be annulled on the ground of the idiocy or lunacy of one of the persons entering into the marriage, a child of the marriage is deemed the legitimate child of the parent of sound mind, and the court by the judgment may decide that a child of the marriage is the legitimate child of the parent of unsound mind.

3. If a marriage be annulled on the ground of the idiocy or lunacy of both of the persons entering into the marriage, the court by the judgment may decide that a child of the marriage is the legitimate child of either or both parents.

4. If a marriage be annulled on the ground of force, duress or fraud, a child of the marriage is deemed the legitimate child of both parents unless the court by the judgment decides otherwise as to either or both parents.

5. If a marriage be declared a nullity as incestuous, a child of the marriage is deemed the legitimate child of both parents.

6. If a marriage be declared a nullity or annulled upon the ground that the former husband or wife of one of the parties was living, the former marriage being in force, if it appears, and the judgment determines, that the subsequent marriage was contracted by at least one of the parties thereto in good faith, and with the full belief that the former husband or wife was dead or that the former marriage had been annulled or dissolved, or without any knowledge on the part of the innocent party of such former marriage, a child of such subsequent marriage is deemed the legitimate child of the parent who at the time of the marriage was competent to contract. If either or both parties to such subsequent marriage were incompetent to contract, the court of the judgment may decide that a child of the marriage is the legitimate child of such an incompetent.

7. If a marriage be declared a nullity or annulled for any cause or under any conditions other than those specified in the foregoing subdivisions, the court by the judgment may decide that a child of the marriage is the legitimate child of either or both of its parents.

8. If the court be authorized by this section to decide that a child of a marriage is the legitimate child of either or both of its parents, the judgment may limit the effect of legitimatization to rights other than succession to real and personal property of a deceased parent.

PROVISIONS FOR MAINTENANCE OF CHILD BORN OUT OF WEDLOCK.

An Act Relating to filiation proceedings, providing for the institution, trial, procedure, and judgment and enforcement thereof, in actions to determine the paternity of a child of an unmarried mother and providing for the maintenance of such child and certain expenses of the mother thereof, and providing for the prosecution and punishment of such person.

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the State of Washington:

SECTION 1. Complaint against putative father.—When an unmarried woman shall be pregnant or delivered of a child which shall not be the issue of lawful wedlock, complaint may be made in writing by said unmarried woman, her father, mother or guardian, to any justice of the peace in the county of which she has been a resident for thirty days last past and where she may be so pregnant or delivered, or where the person accused may be found, accusing, under oath, a person with being the father of such child, and it shall be the duty of such justice forthwith to issue a warrant against the person so accused and cause him to be brought forthwith before such justice.

SEC. 2. Hearing before justice of the peace; bond.—Upon the appearance of the accused, it shall be the duty of such justice to examine the woman, if then present, under oath, in the presence of the man alleged to be the father of the child, touching the charge against him, or, if the woman be not then present, to fix a date for such examination not more than ten days thereafter and to require the accused to give a bond with sufficient surety conditioned that he will appear to answer such charge upon such date, or upon any other date to which such examination may be continued; and in default of the giving of such bond such justice shall cause the accused to be committed to the county jail. The accused shall have the right to controvert such charge and evidence may be heard as in the case of trial of civil actions before such justice. If such justice shall be of the opinion that sufficient cause appears, it shall be his duty to bind the person so accused in bond with sufficient surety payable to the state of Washington and conditioned that he will appear in the superior court of such county, at such time or times as the judge thereof may fix or order, to answer such complaint, and abide the judgment and orders of the court; or failing therein, that he will pay such sums of money and to such person as may be adjudged by such court; and the justice shall transmit such bond, together with the transcript of his proceedings, the complaint and the other papers in the case, without delay to the clerk of the superior court of such county. And if the accused shall fail to give a bond as required, such justice shall commit him to jail until discharged by law. Such bond, or any bond given by said accused on any continuance or arrest, may be put in suit by any person in whose favor the court may adjudge any sum of money in such proceeding.

SEC. 3. Duty of prosecuting attorney.—Such proceeding shall be entitled in the name of the state of Washington, and shall be prosecuted in both justice court and the superior court by the prosecuting attorney of the county where brought, and shall not be dismissed except by such prosecuting attorney upon a showing to the court that the provisions herein contemplated to be made for the maintenance, care, education and support of the child have been made.

SEC. 4. Discharge on recognizance bond.—Any person committed to jail for failure to give such bond may be discharged from custody by filing at any time after his commitment, with the clerk of the superior court such bond, to the satisfaction of the said clerk; and a certificate of the clerk to the sheriff shall be sufficient to authorize him to discharge the accused from custody.

SEC. 5. Mother's testimony reduced to writing.—The testimony of the mother, or mother to be, shall be by such justice reduced to writing, read carefully to such witness and be by her signed, and shall, by such justice, be returned to the superior court with the other papers in the proceeding, to be used by either party thereto.

SEC. 6. Docketing in superior court.—Upon the filing of the transcript, complaint and other papers in the superior court, the clerk thereof shall docket the same, and said complaint shall stand as the complaint therein, and issue shall be joined thereon as now provided in civil actions.

SEC. 7. Trial.—If the accused in the superior court denies the charge, the issue may be tried by the court or by jury if demanded by either party.

SEC. 8. Judgment of discharge.—If on the trial of the issue joined, the finding or verdict shall be that the child is not the child of the accused, that the judgment of the court shall be that he be discharged: Provided, however, that no court costs shall be required of the complainant for the proceeding before such justice or the superior court.

SEC. 9. Judgment ordering support of child; bond.—In the event the issue be found against the accused, or whenever he shall, in open court, have confessed the truth of the accusation against him, he shall be charged by the order and judgment of the court to pay a sum to be therein specified, during each year of the life of such child, until such child shall have reached the age of sixteen years, for the care, education and support of such child, and shall also be charged thereby to pay the expenses of the mother incurred during her sickness and confinement, together with all costs of the suit, for which costs execution shall issue as in other cases. And the accused shall be required by said court to give bond, with sufficient surety, to be approved by the judge of said court, for the payment of such sums of money as shall be so ordered by said court. Said bond shall be made payable to the people of the state of Washington, and conditioned for the true and faithful payment of such yearly sums, in equal quarterly installments, to the clerk of said court, which said bond shall be filed and preserved by the clerk of said court.

SEC. 10. Act cumulative with criminal proceedings.—In addition to the proceedings for enforcing the support of the child heretofore provided for, the accused may be prosecuted in any criminal proceeding now or hereafter to be provided for by the laws of the state of Washington, relating to the support of minor children by parents or other persons upon whom such children may be dependent for care, education or support.

SEC. 11. Execution in absence of security bond.—If the accused shall fail or refuse to give such a bond as may be required by such superior court by virtue of the provisions of section nine, such court shall at any time thereafter, upon application of the mother or guardian, render judgment against the accused for any sum or sums then due and unpaid under the terms of such order and judgment, and execution thereon shall issue from said court; Provided, That the rendition and collection of judgment as aforesaid shall not be construed to bar or hinder the taking of similar proceedings for the collection of judgment for the nonpayment of any sum or sums becoming due and unpaid thereafter.

SEC. 12. Commitment for contempt; hearing upon question of inability to support.—If the accused shall refuse and neglect to give such security as may be ordered by the court, under the provisions of section nine, he shall be committed to the county jail for contempt of court, there to remain until he shall comply with such order, or until otherwise discharged by due course of law. Any person so committed may at any time petition the court for a hearing as to his inability to comply with the order of the court and the court shall thereupon fix a time for the hearing of such petition which hearing shall be not less than ten days after the date of service of said petition on the prosecuting attorney. The prosecuting attorney may however waive the said ten day period in whole or in part. At the hearing the defendant shall be examined on oath in reference to the facts set forth in such petition and his ability to comply with such judgment and order, and any other legal evidence in reference to such matters may be produced by any of the parties interested. If it appears that the defendant is unable to comply with such judgment and order, the court may direct his discharge from custody, upon his making affidavit that he has not in his own name any property, real or personal, and has no such property conveyed or concealed, or in any manner disposed of with design to secure the same to his use or to avoid in any manner compliance with such judgment and order. If upon such hearing it appears that the defendant has property, but not sufficient to comply with such judgment and order, the court may make such order concerning the same, in connection with such discharge, as justice may require.

SEC. 13. Disposition of judgment money.—The judgment money, when received by said clerk either by payment by the accused or by execution against the accused or against the sureties, shall be paid to the mother or guardian of such child, if a guardian therefore be appointed, and shall be paid out for the support, care, and education of such child in such manner as shall be directed by the court.

SEC. 14. Default in paying installments; judgment.—Whenever default shall be made in the payment of the quarterly installments, or any part thereof, specified in the bond provided for in section nine the superior court of the county wherein such bond is filed shall, at the request of the mother, guardian, or any person interested in the support of such child, issue a citation to the principal or sureties in such bond requiring them to appear on some day in said citation mentioned and show cause, if any there be, why execution should not issue against them for the amount of the installment or installments due and unpaid on said bond. And if the amount due on such installment or installments shall not be paid at or before the time mentioned for showing cause, as aforesaid, such court shall render judgment in favor of the people of the state of Washington, and the complainant or guardian, against the principal and sureties who have been served with such citation for the amount unpaid of the installment or installments on the bond, and the cost of such proceeding, and execution shall issue in due form from said court upon said judgment.

SEC. 15. Commitment for contempt; modification of judgment.—Such court shall also have the power, in case the accused does not obey the order thereof, and in case of default in the payment when due, of any installment or installments, or any part thereof, in the conditions of the said bond mentioned, to adjudge the accused guilty of contempt of court by reason of the non-payment as aforesaid, and order him to be committed to the county jail in such county until the amount of said installment or installments so due shall be fully paid, together with all the costs of such commitment, but the commitment of the accused shall not operate to stay or defeat the obtaining of judgment and collection thereof by execution: Provided, that the rendition and collection of judgment, as aforesaid, shall not be construed to bar or hinder the taking of similar proceedings for the collection of subsequent installments on said bond as they shall become due or remain unpaid. Provided further, that any judgment entered herein may be modified at any time upon proper showing to the court.

SEC. 16. Limitation on prosecution.—No prosecution under this act shall be brought after two years from the birth of the child: Provided, the time during which any person accused shall be absent from the state shall not be computed.

SEC. 17. Mother's death not to abate action.—The death of the mother shall not abate the proceeding, if the child be living; but a suggestion of record of the fact shall be made, and the testimony of the mother taken in writing before aforesaid justice may be read in evidence by either party, and shall have the same force as though she were living and had testified to the same in court.

SEC. 18. Judgment in case of child's death.—The death of such child shall not cause the abatement or bar to any prosecution hereunder; but the court trying the same, on conviction, shall give judgment for such sum as shall be deemed just.

SEC. 19. Custody of child.—If the mother be a suitable person she shall be awarded the custody and control of said child; if she be not a suitable person, the court may deliver the care and custody of said child to any reputable person, including the accused, charitable or state institution. Such order and judgment may further provide, in the discretion of the court, that the surname of the accused shall henceforth be the lawful surname of such child.
